There was some controversy in the qualification finals. In a match between France and the Republic of Ireland, the French captain illegally handled the ball, but it was not seen by the referee. This led to the winning goal. Ireland requested a replay, but was denied.

The official mascot of the 2010 event is Zakumi, a leopard with green hair. The name is made up of "Za" the international abbreviation for South Africa, and "kumi" meaning 10 in several South African languages. His colors, Green and yellow, reflect the host nation team.

The new technologically advanced ball is named "Jabulani", meaning "Bringing Joy to Everyone". It is 11 different colors representing several things: it's the 11 World Cup ball made by Adidas, 11 players on the pitch, 11 official languages of South Africa, and the event starts on the 11th day of June and ends on the 11th day of July.
